

Executive Training Course on Population Antalya, Turkey

Representatives of the State Statistical Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan Rza Allahverdiyev – Head of the Department of Population and Gender Statistics and Seadet Rahimova – Deputy Head of the Department of Econometric Analysis of Statistical Data of the Scientific-Research and Design Technological Centre of the Statistical Data participated in the Executive Training Course on Population organized for CIS countries by UNFPA and National Research University Higher School of Economics of Russia on 23 September- 2 October, 2013 in Antalya, Turkey.

Representatives of the National Statistical Services of CIS countries (Azerbaijan, Belarus, Moldova, Kazakhstan, Kirgizstan, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan), Ministry of Labour and Social Protection and Ministry of Economic Development, representatives of Russian Academy of Sciences, UNFPA as well as, National Research University Higher School of Economics of Russia and experts of Moscow State University participated in the training course. Totally, participation of 30 persons was provided in the training course.

The main purpose of above mentioned training course was consist of studying of calculation methodology of forecasted number of population in accordance with international standards for future years and practical implementation of that methodology in accordance with national characteristics.

The training course was held in the framework of the planned program.

The course was efficient and at the end of the course certificates were presented to the participants.