

The seminar on the frame of INOGATE Program was held in Tbilisi, Georgia

Representative of the State Statistical Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan head adviser of the Department on Industry and Construction – A. Karimov participated in the seminar on the frame of INOGATE Program organized in Georgia, Tbilisi on the theme of Energy statistics and calculation of statistical indicators of it held on 5-9 October, 2012.

The INOGATE Program is an international project which supports energy policy cooperation between the European Union and the INOGATE Partner Countries. Azerbaijan, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Tajikistan, Georgia, Turkmenistan, Ukraine and Armenia participated in the seminar.

In the first day of the meeting our representative presented presentation on “Situation of Energy Statistics in Azerbaijan”. After presentation experts of International Energy Agency (IEA) presented presentations on fulfillment of statistical inquires on oil (monthly and annual). The presentations were about: importance of different types of measurement units to one measurement unit transfer, changing of resources at the end of the year (oil and oil products) and etc.

In the second day of the meeting participants were informed about the followings: heat capacity of gas during fulfillment of statistical inquires on gas (monthly, annual), import and export, capacity of gas, changing of it according to the pressure and temperature and etc.

Generally, follows were discussed during the seminar: types of renewable energy, electricity and heating energy, sequence and examination of data on energy statistics, energy balance and etc.

At the end of the seminar advantageous of Future Corporation were emphasized by organizers of INOGATE program and all participants countries.

