

Retail trade turnover

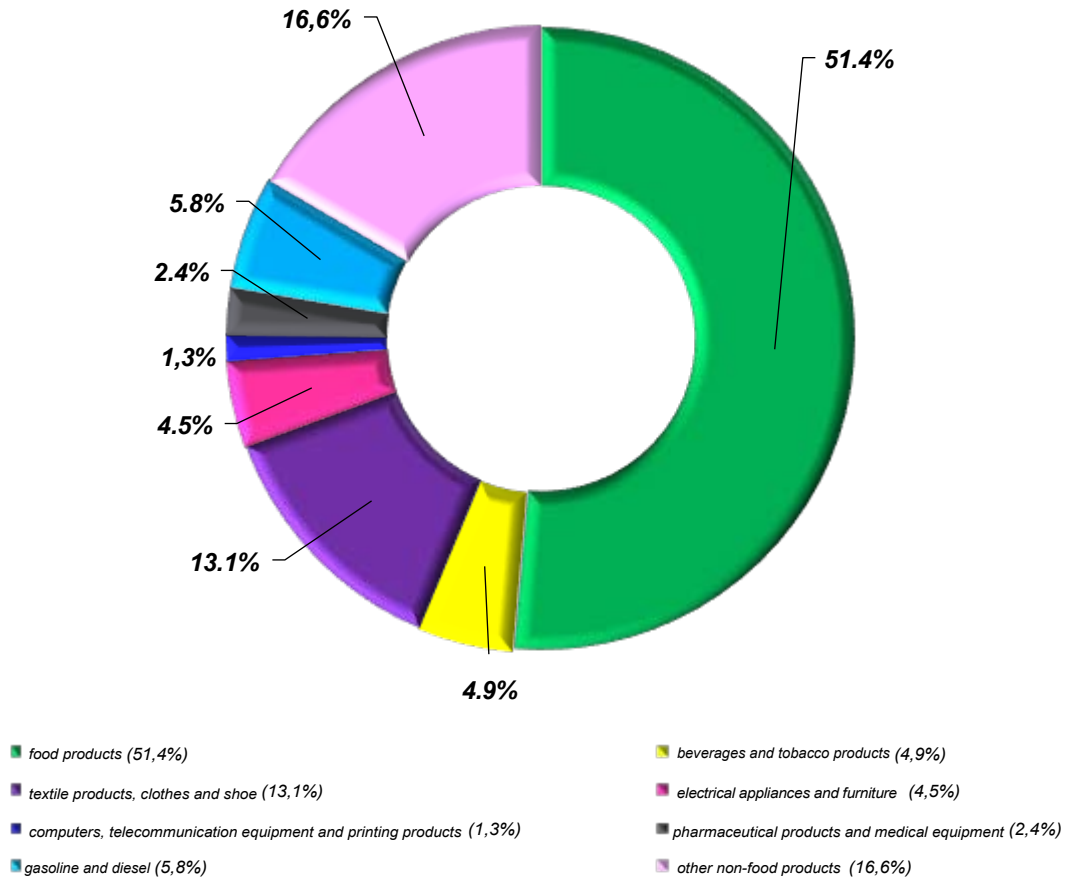

In January-May 2024, products at 21,5 billion manats, including food, beverages and tobacco products at 12,1 billion manats and non-food products at 9,4 billion manats were sold to the consumers in the retail trade network. Compared to January-May 2023 the retail trade turnover increased in real terms by 3,3 percent, including 1,8 percent for food products, beverages and tobacco products and 5,2 percent for non-food products.

Commodity market during the reporting period is characterized by the following indicators:

Product group	Income from sale, in million manats	As % compared January-May 2023
Retail trade turnover	21 465,2	103,3
including:
Food products	11 039,0	102,0
Beverages and tobacco products	1 039,8	100,1
Textile products, clothes and shoes	2 821,5	105,0
Electrical appliances and furniture	962,1	104,3
Computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products	277,5	130,7
Pharmaceutical products and medical equipment	505,6	98,6
Gasoline and diesel fuel	1 251,7	106,1
Other non-food products	3 568,0	104,7

During the reporting period, 51,4 percent of resources the consumers spent on purchasing food products in the retail trade network, 4,9 percent - on beverages and tobacco products, 13,1 percent - on textile products, clothes and shoes, 5,8 percent - on gasoline and diesel fuel, 4,5 percent - electrical appliances and furniture, 2,4 percent - pharmaceutical products and medical equipment, 1,3 percent - computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products and 16,6 percent - other non-food products.

Structure of retail trade turnover in January-May 2024

During the reporting period, the value of goods sold by entities of the non-state sector increased in real terms by 3,3 percent compared to the same period of the previous year and amounted to 99,7 percent of the total retail trade turnover.

In January-May 2024, retail trade turnover compared to January-May 2023 increased in real terms by 10,3 percent - for enterprises, 0,2 percent – for private entrepreneurs, 1,2 percent - for markets and fairs.

During the reporting period, in the retail trade network at average monthly per country citizen there have been purchased products in amount of 421,3 manats, including food products, beverages and tobacco products in amount of 237,1 manats and non-food products in amount of 184,2 manats.