

Retail trade turnover

In January-July 2024, products at 32,3 billion manats, including food, beverages and tobacco products at 17,8 billion manats and non-food products at 14,5 billion manats were sold to the consumers in the retail trade network. Compared to January-July 2023 the retail trade turnover increased in real terms by 3,4 percent, including 1,9 percent for food products, beverages and tobacco products and 5,3 percent for non-food products.

Commodity market during the reporting period is characterized by the following indicators:

Product group	Income from sale, in million manats	As % to January-July 2023
Retail trade turnover	32 263,8	103,4
including:
Food products	16 327,2	102,1
Beverages and tobacco products	1 474,6	100,4
Textile products, clothes and shoes	4 133,3	104,9
Electrical appliances and furniture	1 560,6	105,2
Computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products	382,9	121,5
Pharmaceutical products and medical equipment	735,1	101,2
Gasoline and diesel fuel	1 821,2	106,8
Other non-food products	5 828,9	104,6

In January-July 2024, 50,6 percent of resources the consumers spent on purchasing food products in the retail trade network, 4,6 percent - on beverages and tobacco products, 12,8 percent - on textile products, clothes and shoes, 5,6 percent - on gasoline and diesel fuel, 4,8 percent - electrical appliances and furniture, 2,3 percent - pharmaceutical products and medical equipment, 1,2 percent - computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products and 18,1 percent - other non-food products.

Structure of retail trade turnover in January-July 2024

During the reporting period, the value of goods sold by entities of the non-state sector increased in real terms by 3,4 percent compared to the same period of the previous year and amounted to 99,7 percent of the total retail trade turnover.

In January-July 2024, retail trade turnover compared to January-July 2023 increased in real terms by 10,2 percent - for enterprises, 0,2 percent – for private entrepreneurs, 2,1 percent - for markets and fairs.

During the reporting period, in the retail trade network at average monthly per country citizen there have been purchased products in amount of 452,2 manats, including food products, beverages and tobacco products in amount of 249,5 manats and non-food products in amount of 202,7 manats.

