

Retail trade turnover

In January-September 2024, products at 42,7 billion manats, including food, beverages and tobacco products at 23,5 billion manats and non-food products at 19,2 billion manats were sold to the consumers in the retail trade network. Compared to January-September 2023 the retail trade turnover increased in real terms by 3,6 percent, including 1,8 percent for food products, beverages and tobacco products and 5,7 percent for non-food products.

Commodity market during the reporting period is characterized by the following indicators:

Product group	Income from sale, in million manats	As % compared January-September 2023
Retail trade turnover	42 700,4	103,6
including:
Food products	21 586,4	101,9
Beverages and tobacco products	1 882,2	100,8
Textile products, clothes and shoes	5 837,3	104,9
Electrical appliances and furniture	2 162,9	105,1
Computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products	524,0	126,0
Pharmaceutical products and medical equipment	936,8	100,7
Gasoline and diesel fuel	2 430,9	106,3
Other non-food products	7 339,9	105,8

In January-September 2024, 50,6 percent of resources the consumers spent on purchasing food products in the retail trade network, 4,4 percent - on beverages and tobacco products, 13,7 percent - on textile products, clothes and shoes, 5,7 percent - on gasoline and diesel fuel, 5,0 percent - electrical appliances and furniture, 2,2 percent - pharmaceutical products and medical equipment, 1,2 percent - computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products and 17,2 percent - other non-food products.

Structure of retail trade turnover in January-September 2024

During the reporting period, the value of goods sold by entities of the non-state sector increased in real terms by 3,6 percent compared to the same period of the previous year and amounted to 99,7 percent of the total retail trade turnover.

In January-September 2024, retail trade turnover compared to January-September 2023 increased in real terms by 9,8 percent - for enterprises, 0,6 percent – for private entrepreneurs, 2,3 percent - for markets and fairs.

During the reporting period, in the retail trade network at average monthly per country citizen there have been purchased products in amount of 465,2 manats, including food products, beverages and tobacco products in amount of 255,7 manats and non-food products in amount of 209,5 manats.