

Coordination saves lives

Head of sector of the Department of Data Dissemination of the State Statistical Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan - Azer Ahmadov participated in the Joint OCHA/UNFPA workshop on "Information management and Guidelines on Data Issues in Humanitarian Crisis Situation" held in Almaty, Kazakhstan on 13-16 May, 2013. Workshop was organized by United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) and United Nations

Office for the Coordination Humanitarian Affairs (UNOCHA). Representatives of Azerbaijan, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan and Armenia were participated in the workshop. Representatives of invited countries were the representatives of Ministry of Emergency Situations, Civil Defense Headquarters, Organizations of Cartography and National Statistical Bodies. The representatives of Azerbaijan were consisting of the State Statistical Committee, Ministry of Emergency Situations, the State Committee of Land and Cartography.

The main theme of the workshop was dedicated to the overcome the crisis in emergency situations and use of "Guidelines on Data Issues in Humanitarian Crisis Situation" published by UNFPA in 2010.

The last day of the workshop the representative of the State Statistical Committee chaired to the workshop and gave his suggestions and recommendations to the participants of the workshop on above mentioned theme.