

Meeting with the Representatives of Federal State Statistics Service of the Russian Federation in the State Statistical Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan

By the purpose of exchange of experience there was organized meeting with the Head of Department on Harmonization of Statistical Methodology of Federal State Statistics Service of the Russian Federation – Marina Kravchenko in the Department of Data Dissemination and the head of Department of Energy Statistics – Marina Bajeva with the Department of Industry and Construction Statistics on the 15-17 of October of the current year.

In the Department of Data Dissemination was discussed the structure, adaptation of tables and indicators of the publication named Azerbaijan – Russia intended to be published next year with the representative of Rosstat. It was noted that, model of publication was prepared by the Federal State Statistics Service of the Russian Federation and will be presented to the State Statistical Committee and in its turn Committee will give its suggestions and recommendations on this structure.

Marina Kravchenko was informed about the works of department and publications published by the department. Besides that, there was organized meeting with the experts of department. In the frame of exchange of experience was also presented handbook for students “Interesting things to know” and the representative was considered appropriate to release such a book in the Federal State Statistics Service of the Russian Federation.

In the Department of Industry and Construction Statistics followings was presented to the representative of Rosstat: Formation of Energy Statistics in the Republic of Azerbaijan, carried out activities and gained achievements, as well as, national energy balance and the structure and composition of commodity balance of different energy products, heating power and energy products produced in the country to adopt and implement a national transformation coefficients, report forms compiled on energy statistics and their implementation according to the structure of modern energy balances, consumption of types of energy in the households and organization and importance of sample statistical surveys on production and consumption of types of energy by private owners, statistical methods for calculating energy efficiency, used classifications and other issues on practice of SSC of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

At the same time, following topics were widely discussed: formation of energy statistics, as well as, fuel-energy balance, existing situation of official statistical report of Russian Federation, (IRES) demands of “International Recommendations on Energy Statistics”.

As the result of meeting Marina Bajeva was noted importance of carried out meeting in the State Statistical Committee, and thanked for comprehensive and detailed information on practice and achievements gained from Azerbaijan in the field of energy statistics and noted that she will used collected data and practices in her activity.